Sponsor the 6th Annual Wrightslaw Special Education Law & Advocacy Conference

Virtual | September 17, 2026

A national virtual conference led by renowned special education attorney and disability advocate Pete Wright, empowering families year after year with the knowledge and confidence to navigate special education law.

Why Partner with The PEAL Center for The Wrightslaw Conference

Families, accessibility, and equitable access to education are critical priorities for today's organizations. Sponsoring the Wrightslaw Conference is a meaningful way to demonstrate that commitment while expanding access to trusted special education legal resources for families nationwide, including your own employees.

Sponsoring this conference positions your organization as:

-  A champion for children and families with disabilities
-  A supporter of inclusive education and accessibility
-  A trusted community partner with real, nationwide impact

Your partnership is recognized across PEAL's platforms, reaching:

6,000+ email subscribers | 12,000+ social media followers | 10,000+ monthly website visitors
